FROM LIFE TO DEATH is but a moment if rheumatism or neural-gia strikes the heart. These diseases are the most painful and the most dangerous of any to which human kind is liable. They ily from one part to another without a memoral's warning, and liminents and other outward applications are in themselves dangerous because they are liable to drive the discuse to some vital organ and cause instant death. Elementism and neuralgia are disca sof the blood, and can only be reached by a remedy which will drive from the blood the danger Such a remely is Athlophoros. It has been thoroughly tested and is a safe, sure cure. George Schneider, employed at the sash factory of Huttig Bros. Manafacturing Co., Massitone, Iowa, says: "About a year ago my wife was afflicted with both rheumatism and neuralgia. She had used numerous remedies with no apparent relief. Having learned of some of the cures effected by Athlophoros I bought some for her. I think it was four or five bottles she used, since which time she has been entirely well of both rheumatism and neuralgia. As she was a very great sufferer I consider Athlophoros a very efficient remedy in w. C. McClain, clerk for Smith & Pone-steel, Droggists, Atlantic, Iowa, says: "I havetried everything I knew offer my rhea-matism, but nothing did too any good until I used Athlophoros. It was in July, 1881. I was confined to the house for over a month, and was obliged to use crutches. I suffered with this rheamatism for about a year. Finally I decided to give Athlophores a trial, thinking it would be no better than the medicines I had used. I felt a change after I had used a bottle. I continued using it, and have not had any rheumatism since."
